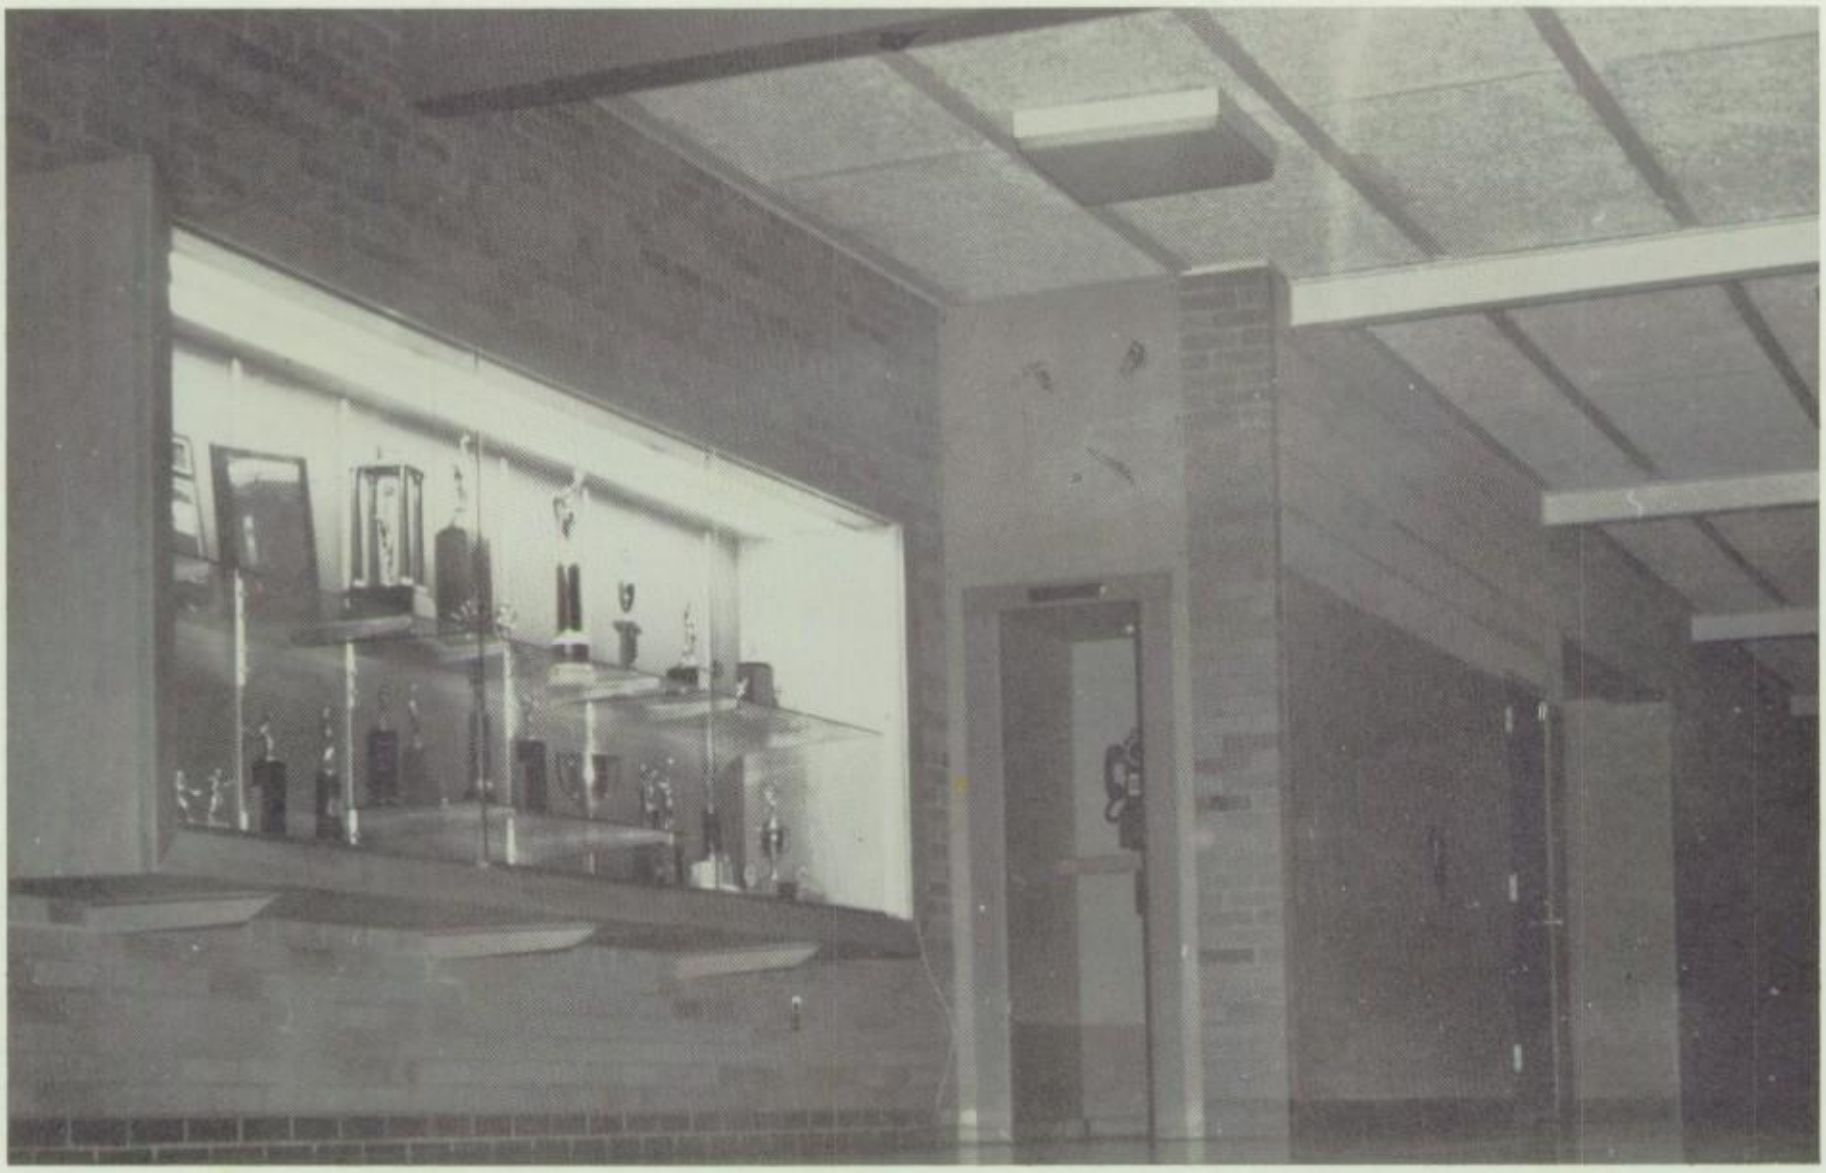
This is Williamston High School, dedicated November fifth. It was designed by the architectural firm of H. E. Beyster and Associates and built by the Schurrer Construction Company. It is located at 3845 Vannter road and operates seven hours a day, five days a week.



But Williamston High is more than concrete, steel and paint; it is more than an address. It is students, faculty, and administration, classes, clubs, and sports, dances, and class meetings. Williamston High School is a way of life for over three hundred people. To review this way of life for the school year nineteen sixty-one, sixty-two, let us pass . . .

School Board and Administration Set School Policies

In the above picture are our Superintendent, Mr. Bockstahler and our Principal, Mr. Vauck.

It was through the hard work of the School Board and the Administration that the town of Williamston received the beautiful new high school which we are now attending. We appreciate the fact that they have the welfare of the town, the school, and the student body in mind when they set the standards by which our school is run. This year's officers are L. A. Cheney, President; W. H. Dwight, Secretary; and H. Powell, Treasurer.

Here are the members of the School Board as they look over some of our new library material. In the front row are;

Mrs. Fossett and Mr. Thompson head our music department as chorus and band directors.

The students above make full use of their study hall in the library.

Mr. Alexander, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Frost (seated), and Mrs. Daignault (below) teach all the English courses. Mrs. Frost and Mrs. Daignault also instruct French, Spanish, and Latin classes.

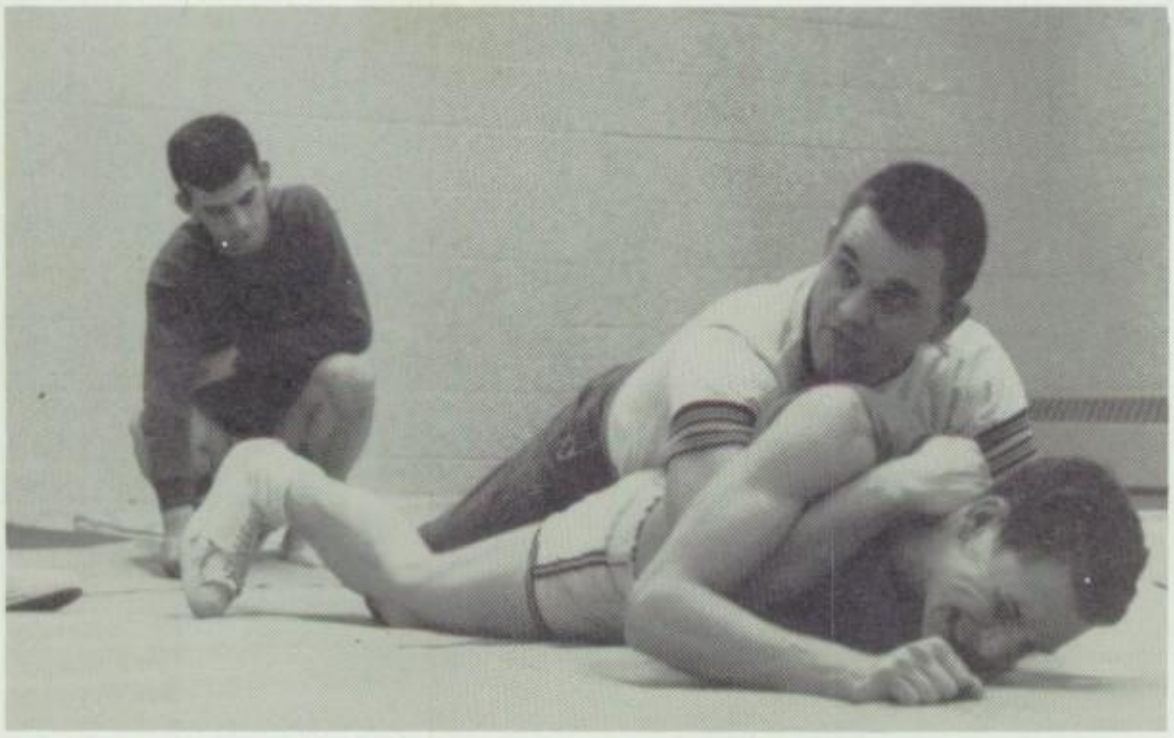
Mrs. Lueck and Mr. Daniels share the gym as Phys. Ed. instructors. Mrs. Lueck also doubles as a Civics teacher.



Mr. Daniels demonstrates wrestling holds on Roger Beach to Mike Wess.

Mrs. Rule and Mrs. Elliot teach typing, bookkeeping, and all the other business courses.

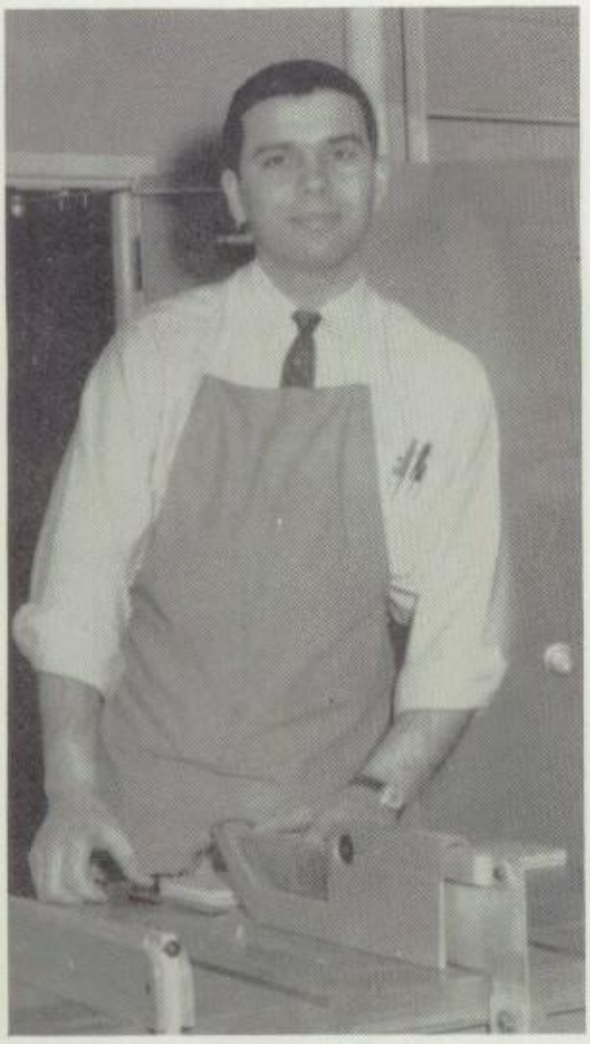
Us to Higher



Mr. Mann is seen here in his natural surroundings, the shop.

W.H.S. offers a variety of courses for its students. Four year major courses are college preparatory, business, vocational agriculture, vocational homemaking and general. As well as required subjects like English, math, history, and government, Williamston has various science, language, vocational, and industrial arts courses. It also has a full range of non-academic classes such as band, chorus, physical education, publications, and drivers' training. With this many courses and subjects students have a large selection from which to choose.

With a faculty of twenty college graduates, students have the best that Williamston can offer. Aside from teaching their regular classes, faculty members coach, supervise study halls, assist students out of class, sponsor clubs and advise classes. It is they who set the goals, maintain the academic standards, and make the extracurricular activities possible.

Chemistry students Sharon Pierce and Ron Dietz work an experiment in the new lab.

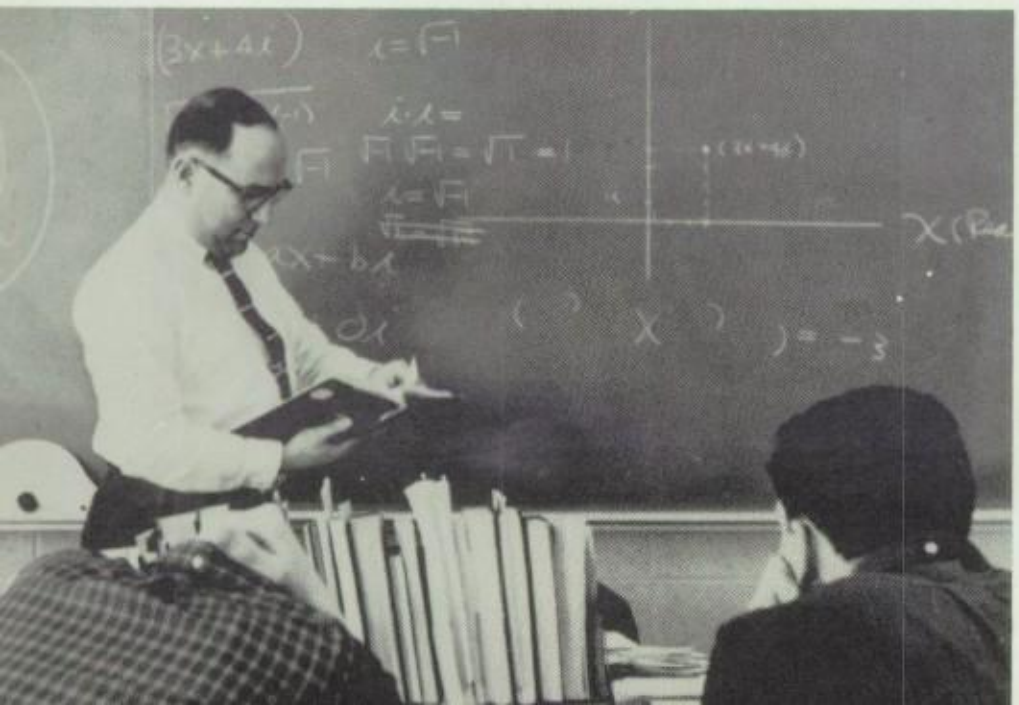
At the right is our librarian, Mrs. Gardiner.

Learning

Mrs. Eck and Mr. Stanfield teach all the history students. Mrs. Eck has both American Government. Besides teaching world history, Mr. Stanfield is the guidance counselor.

Mrs. Miller, Home Ec. teacher and Mr. Hall Vo.-Ag. instructor look over plans for the Harvest Ball in the office. They sponsor the F.H.A. and F.F.A., who put on the yearly event.

Our sincere thanks to Mr. Stanfield for many of the informal classroom scenes on these pages.



Mike Christensen seems to have lost his head over second year algebra. That's Mr. Nielsen at the board.

Tom Casteel plays the bass in one of the more popular non-academic courses, band.

The cooks, Mrs. Hatt, Mrs. Eldred, Mrs. Langdon, Mrs. Ganton and Mrs. Ingersoll supplied the students with delicious meals at noon.

Personnel Plays Important Role

Little credit ever goes to the unnoticed but ever present student "aides." The custodians, the cooks, and the secretaries are always ready and willing to assist the students in the various ways they can. They keep our school clean, our stomachs full, and our records straight.

Mrs. Bullis, Mr. Bockstahler's secretary, totals student's grade averages.

Mrs. Liverance, secretary to Mr. Vauck, types grade transcripts.

The custodians, Mr. Hall, Mr. Aseltine and Mr. Beach keep the building in tip top shape.

The mid-period bell rings and a few students emerge only to disappear into another room. They are on their way to meetings, clubs, and . . .

Pfeifle, N. Adams, B. Thompson, J. Ellinger, S. Pierce, A. Head, K. Shear, J. Shiffer, T. Schoff and G. Benjamin.

Student Council Is Active

The Student Council, the most active organization in high school, sells used books in the fall; organizes the annual homecoming; presents the all school formal, the Sno-Ball, in December; produces the talent assembly in February and has its election of officers in the spring. This year the Student Council is helping support a foreign exchange student from Holland.

John Ellinger presents gifts to the advisors Mrs. Eck and Mrs. Rule, in appreciation of their service to the organization.

The officers of the Student Council are Vice-President, Tom Schoff; Treasurer, Rose Young; President, John Ellinger; and Vice-President, Nina Adams. The Secretary, Livy Petrides was absent. The sponsors are Mrs. Eck and Mrs. Rule.

Not pictured here is Barb Wilbanks who is the Treasurer. Many of the F.T.A. upperclassmen have gone student teaching while the Freshmen observed. Also, each year the F.T.A. sends two delegates to the annual state convention.

THE FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA had a very active year under the leadership of their officers, class chairmen, and sponsor. In addition to the annual Harvest Ball, the club sponsored: International Night, Daddy-Date Night, St. Patrick's Day Dance, and a coat check at all home basketball games.

To the right are the older members of F.H.A. who are Juniors and Seniors.

At the bottom is the group which makes up the largest portion of the club, the Freshmen and Sophomores.

The members of the group at the left which consist of Juniors and Seniors are all classified as "Chapter" or "State Farmers."

Future Vocations

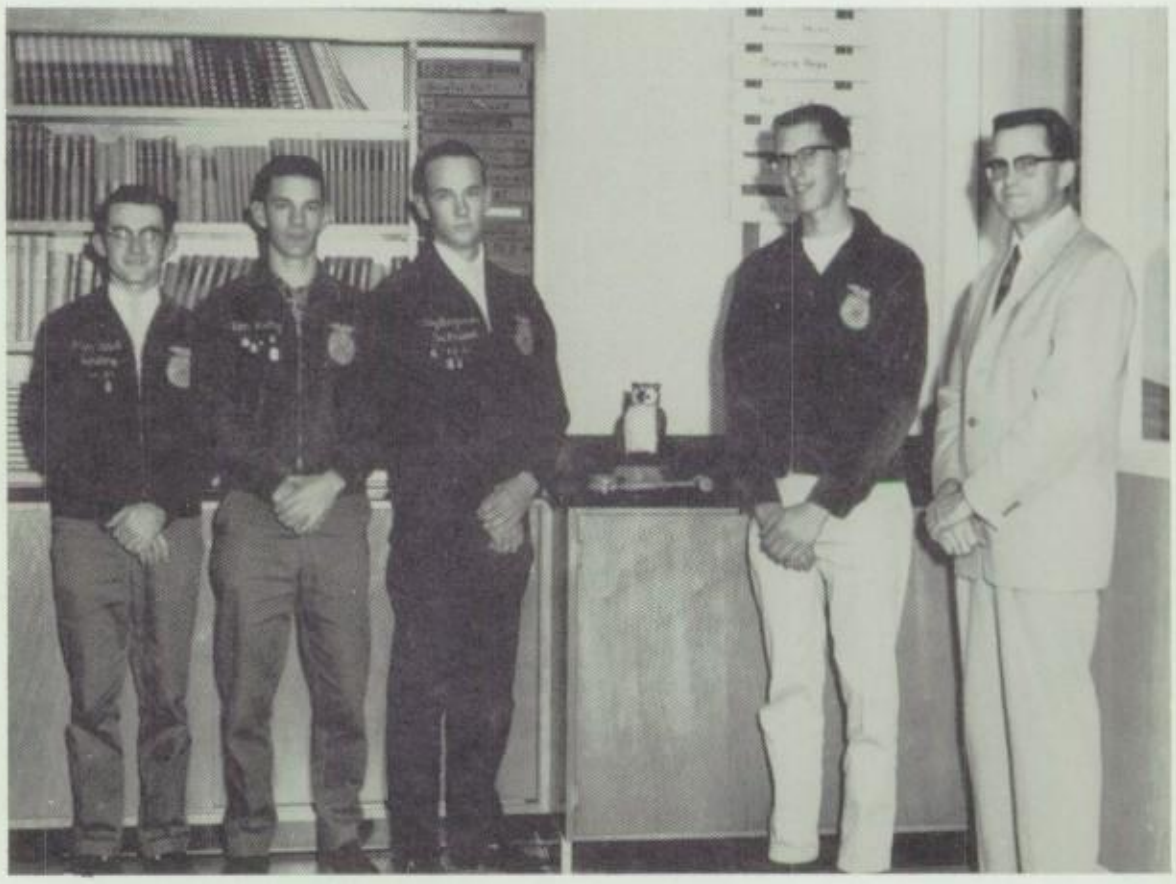
In addition to F.F.A. activities such as participation in State and Regional Conventions and Contests, the club worked with the F.H.A. as co-partner to put on the annual Harvest Ball.



At the right are the so called "Green Hands" and "Chapter Farmers" or, as they are better known, the Freshmen and Sophomores.

Publications Present the School

The Hummer

With the help of Mrs. Elliot, their advisor, the paper staff has given our high school the privilege of having THE HUMMER for the second year. This paper has taken much time and work on the part of the immediate staff, in the bottom picture, and of other reporters from each of the classes and organizations who contribute an article for each issue.

The Annual

This year the small, energetic yearbook staff worked in a new, spacious, well equipped room. The staff, composed of Juniors and Seniors, spent its time constructing the summer supplement, yearbook and the Senior book.

For the first time in the twelve years of THE HORNET there is a custom designed cover which makes it much more distinctive. Another change is the deleting of the Junior High. This change came about when the schools were separated.

Mrs. Johnson has given both heart and soul to the staff and the yearbook in the years she has been the advisor. Her limitless patience and understanding have added qualities beyond our reach alone.

In this picture the Editor is about to lose his head, but don't worry it isn't the first time.

CORNETS are, (SEATED) Dean Langdon, Rob Phelps, Dave Sundeen, Dell Brokaw, (STANDING) Brett Thompson, Dave Pfeifle, Dan Oesterle, Bob Behrens.

Under the direction of Mr. Thompson the W.H.S. Concert Band has undergone changes and been greatly improved this year. One private lesson a marking period for each student, stiffer band entrance tests, and weekly sectional rehersals have all helped add to the quality of the band musically. Discipline was kept intact by a rigid merit and demerit system and more first chair responsibilities. President Rose Young, Vice-President Dave Pfeifle, Secretary Livy Petrides, Treasurer Dan Oesterle, Librarian Kathy Harkness, and the band council assisted Mr. Thompson with the government of the band.

After completing a successful marching season the band played the school dedication, Band Parents Dinner, the Christmas, Festival, and Spring Concerts, and various school assemblies. It also participated in the prescribed festivals.

LOW REEDS, SEATED: Dale Ruttan, Louan Lechler, Mickie Kaiser, Susie Smith, Marilyn Durkee. STANDING: Linda Hill, Edna VerStrate, Janet Kranz, Tom Schoff, Dick Marvin.

The band stepped off playing the school song after winning the Stockbridge game.

The Hornet Marching Band, fifty-two strong, marched at all five home games, both before the games and during the halves. The band presented broadway musical, drill, formation, and prepared half time shows as well as participating in the Homecoming parade and coronation, Dad's Night ceremonies, and a combined pre-game exercise with Webberville.

Band Marches at Home Games

Janean Radditz and Ellen Banning (standing) were chosen by the band as majorettes on a competitive basis; Susie Smith and Mickie Kaiser served as their substitutes. Tom Schoff was the drum-major.

Clubs Promote Spiritual and Physical Well-Being

In this picture starting with the front row and working back are: Lorraine Tetzlaff, Nancy White, Mrs. Lueck, Lana LaFerier, Ann Faustman, Linda Lowrie, Kerry Kuroki, Jeanne Lewis, Cindy Lack, Sheila Monroe, Jeannie Cogswell, Marjan Auping, Betsy Myers, Winnie Myers, Joann Bloom, Jeri Upton, Ruthann Miller, Bonnie Jo Hart, Lenore Hatt, Vicki Lipps, Florence Selfridge, Barbara Wilbanks, Ruth Klewicki, and Nancy Schwartz.

The G.A.A. was organized this year with the main idea of instilling good sportsmanship in the minds of girls. Chosen this year as officers were: Nancy White as Pres., Kerry Kuroki as V.-Pres., Lorraine Tetzlaff as Sec., and Ann Faustman as Treas.

Students formed the Bible Club to help promote christian fellowship and ideas throughout the student body. Rose Young, Connie Powell, and Elaine Karn were chosen Pres., V.-Pres., and Sec.-Treas. respectively.

Shown here preparing for their favorite pastime, out cheering the rest of the school, the varsity club helped bolster school spirit in pep assemblies, rallies, and by displaying a winning effort in all sports.

Varsity Club Boosts School Spirit

THE VARSITY CLUB is composed of letter winners in any of the six sports offered. They are: (first row) F. Casteel, Γ. Casteel, D. Watson, R. Wittemore, A. Head, T. The green and white Hornets boasted a strong line; one that helped plow the way to five victories for the team as a whole.

The Hornet gridders enjoyed a fine season, winning five games and losing only three. They posted a four-two record in league play; the two defeats coming at the hands of co-champions Fowlerville and Haslett.

The 1961 squad was a good all-around outfit that played consistant ball, enabling them to finish third in the Ingham County League. Although the team will be losing six players through graduation, there will be eleven returning lettermen to take their places.

Hornet tacklers brought down many opponents in their highly successful season.

Serving as head football coach for the 1961 season was Larry Daniels. Assisting him in working both with the line and backfield was Fred Whims, a new member to the home staff, but veteran of league play.

Seniors

All of the boys earned first team berths. Tom helped anchor the line and open holes for the spectacular break-away running of halfback Roger Whittemore. Roger was given an honorable mention on the All County Team, and voted most valuable player by his teammates. Ron and Mike received praise for their fine defensive play. Tackle, Joe Dexter played well on offense as well as defense. John was an outstanding player at end and fullback. He was on the All County first team and was elected most valuable player by the Hornets.

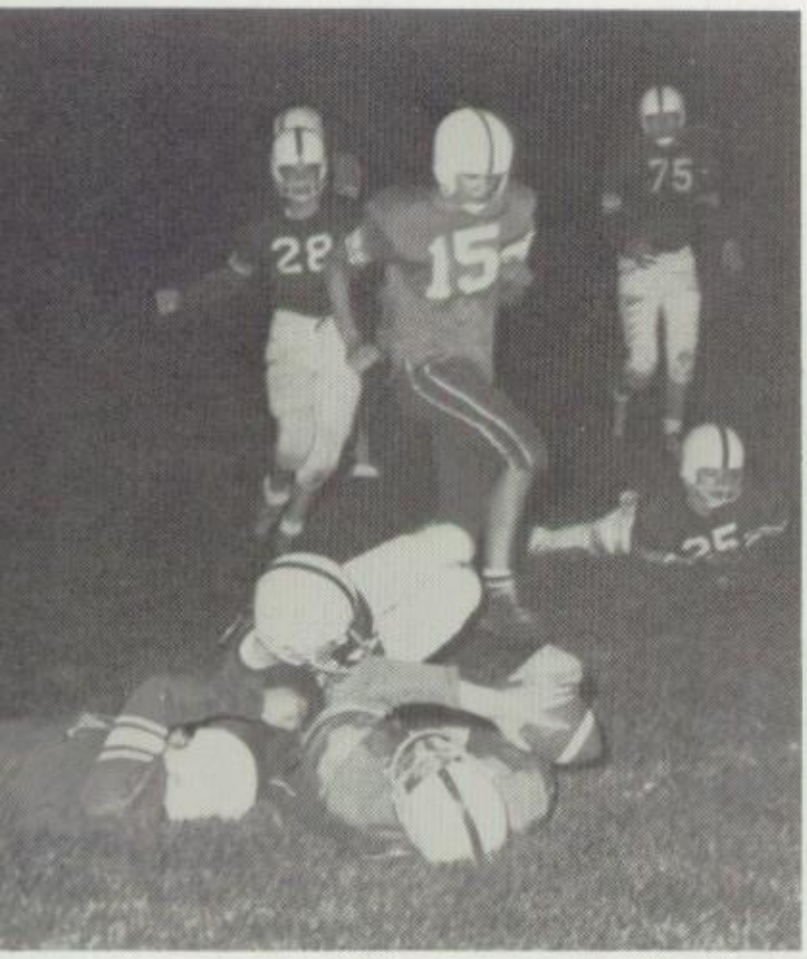
Reserves Find Gridiron Challenging

The Reserve team this year, coached by Doug Davidson, led off their round of games with a 14-13 victory over their rivals, the Dansville Aggies. This victory failed however to hold their spirits throughout the season when they lost the remaining six games.



The J. V.'s often showed their progression in learning fundamentals, such as tackling, shown here in the Okemos game.

Several Hornet players found good rebounding positions as an unidentified Okemos player shot a hook shot.

and Basketball Court Demanding!

Bill Alexander coached the Junior Varsity team during its '61-'62 season. The team was composed of an equal number of sophomores and freshmen all working as a unit. Shown in the first row are: D. Gaffner, P. Mahaney, R. Edwards, L. Humphrey, J. Oesterle, and D. Langdon. Crouched to the right of manager Paul Tobias are M. Honey, B. Thompson, R. Ouderkirk, M. Gaffner, M. Winn, D. Parmalee, L. Sober, and coach Alexander. The team completed its season with a 4-12 record, beating Webberville twice and Stockbridge and Fowlerville once each.

Varsity Cagers Take First Bounce on New Gym Floor

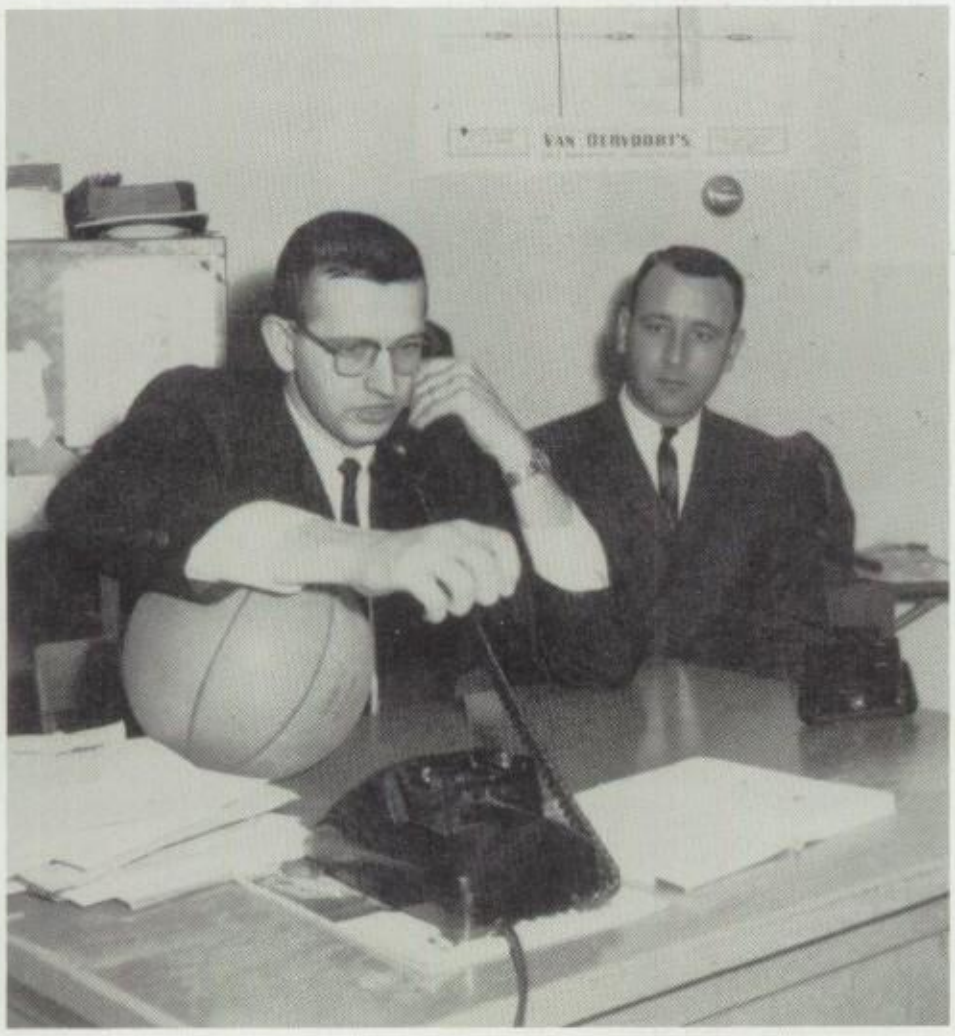
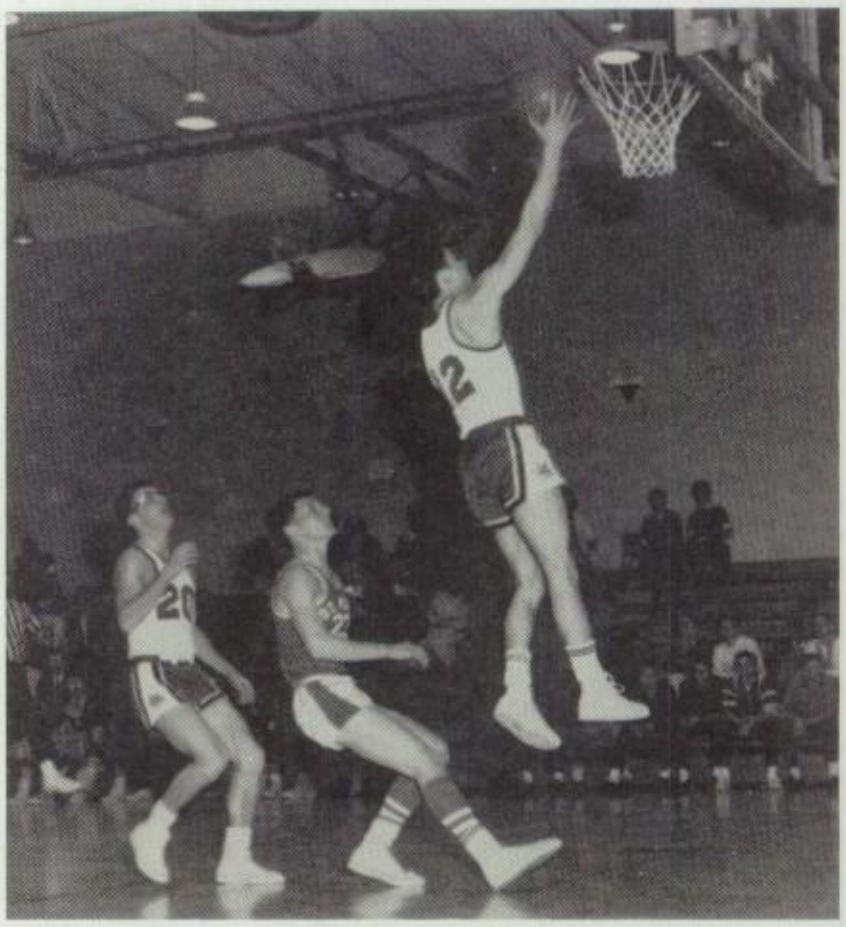
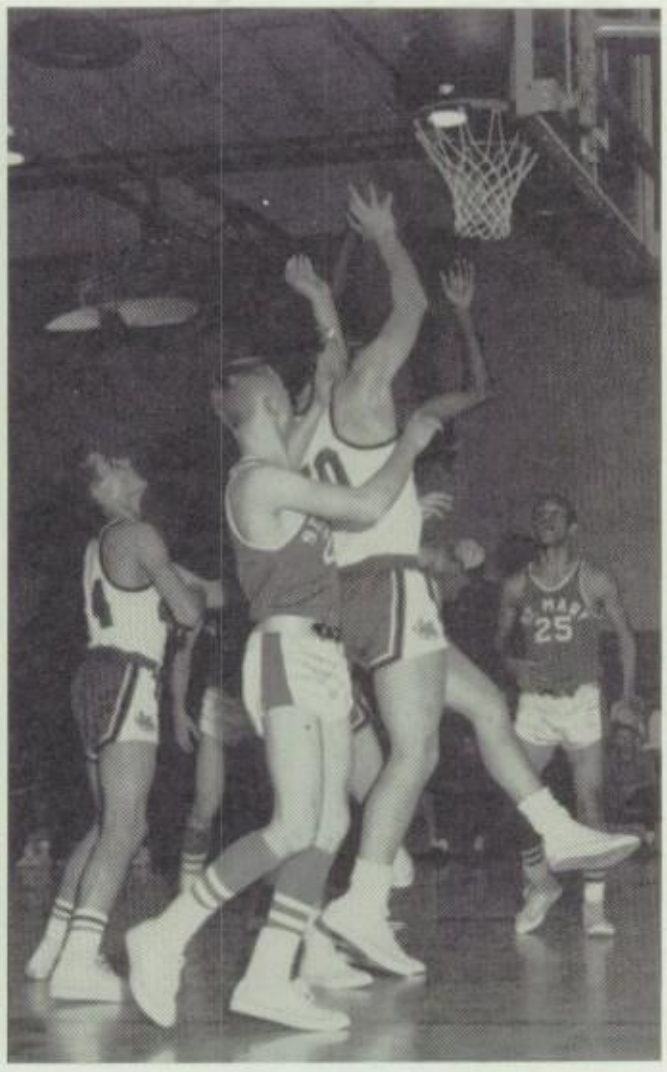
Two new members to the Williamston faculty led the basketball teams through their '62 seasons. Fred Whims coached the varsity quintet while Bill Alexander prodded on the reserves.





The Hornet team worked a fast break against the St. Mary Blues to allow Tom Hollandsworth an easy two. Dave Pfeifle followed him in for the non-coming rebound.



The W.H.S. cheerleaders and crowd let out a roar of approval as team captain John Ellinger makes a three point play in the St. Mary's game. Despite the strong effort put forth by the home team the Big Blues captured a 61 to 46 victory.

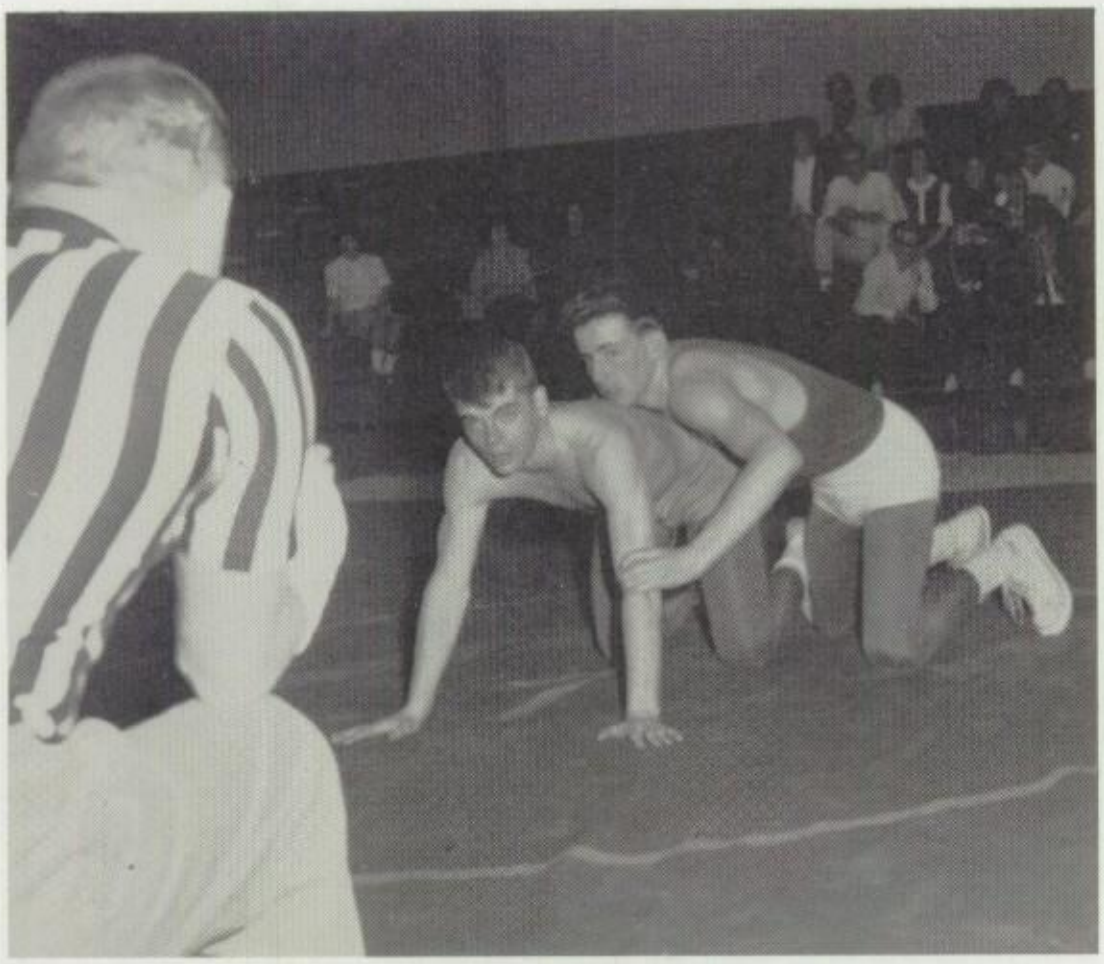
Six seniors joined with nine underclassmen to complete the Hornet team for the '61-'62 season. Gary Benjamin and Doug Cochrane played forward positions in games away and at home on the new gym floor. John Ellinger, center, served as team captain and was high point man for the season. Mike Dmochowski played both forward and center while Stan Bixby, and Roger Whittemore, not shown, completed their senior year as guards.

Wrestlers Gain Experience In Rebuilding Year



Paul Dexter anxiously awaits the referees signal to wrestle.

With only one returning letterman the Hornet Wrestling team was promising but inexperienced. The season was a long one for Coach Davidson and his grapplers, although it did have a brighter side. For the first time the wrestlers had their own weighing and wrestling rooms. This aided them in that the necessary high temperatures for losing weight could be maintained. Many of the opposing teams' coaches praised the Williamston squad for their hustle on the mat. The boys got better with each match, and with the experience gained this year they are looking forward to a better season next year.

The wrestlers are: KNEELING: J. Dexter, L. Dunckel, T. Castell, G. Fox, P. Zemke, R. Gaffner, M. Krause, P. Dexter. STANDING: J. Shiffer, G. Ward, B. Eaton, P. Zemke, B. Meyer, D. Marvin, M. Smith, and Coach Davidson.

Bill Eaton is shown riding his opponent in an effort to get a take down.

Cheerleaders work hard and receive little of the credit they deserve. To remain on the squad, each girl must keep up her scholastic average and attend practices. When one of the girls is unable to cheer, the squad manager is able to take her place so they too deserve recognition. The varsity manager this year was Marcia McNeilly and the reserve manager was Janean Raddatz.

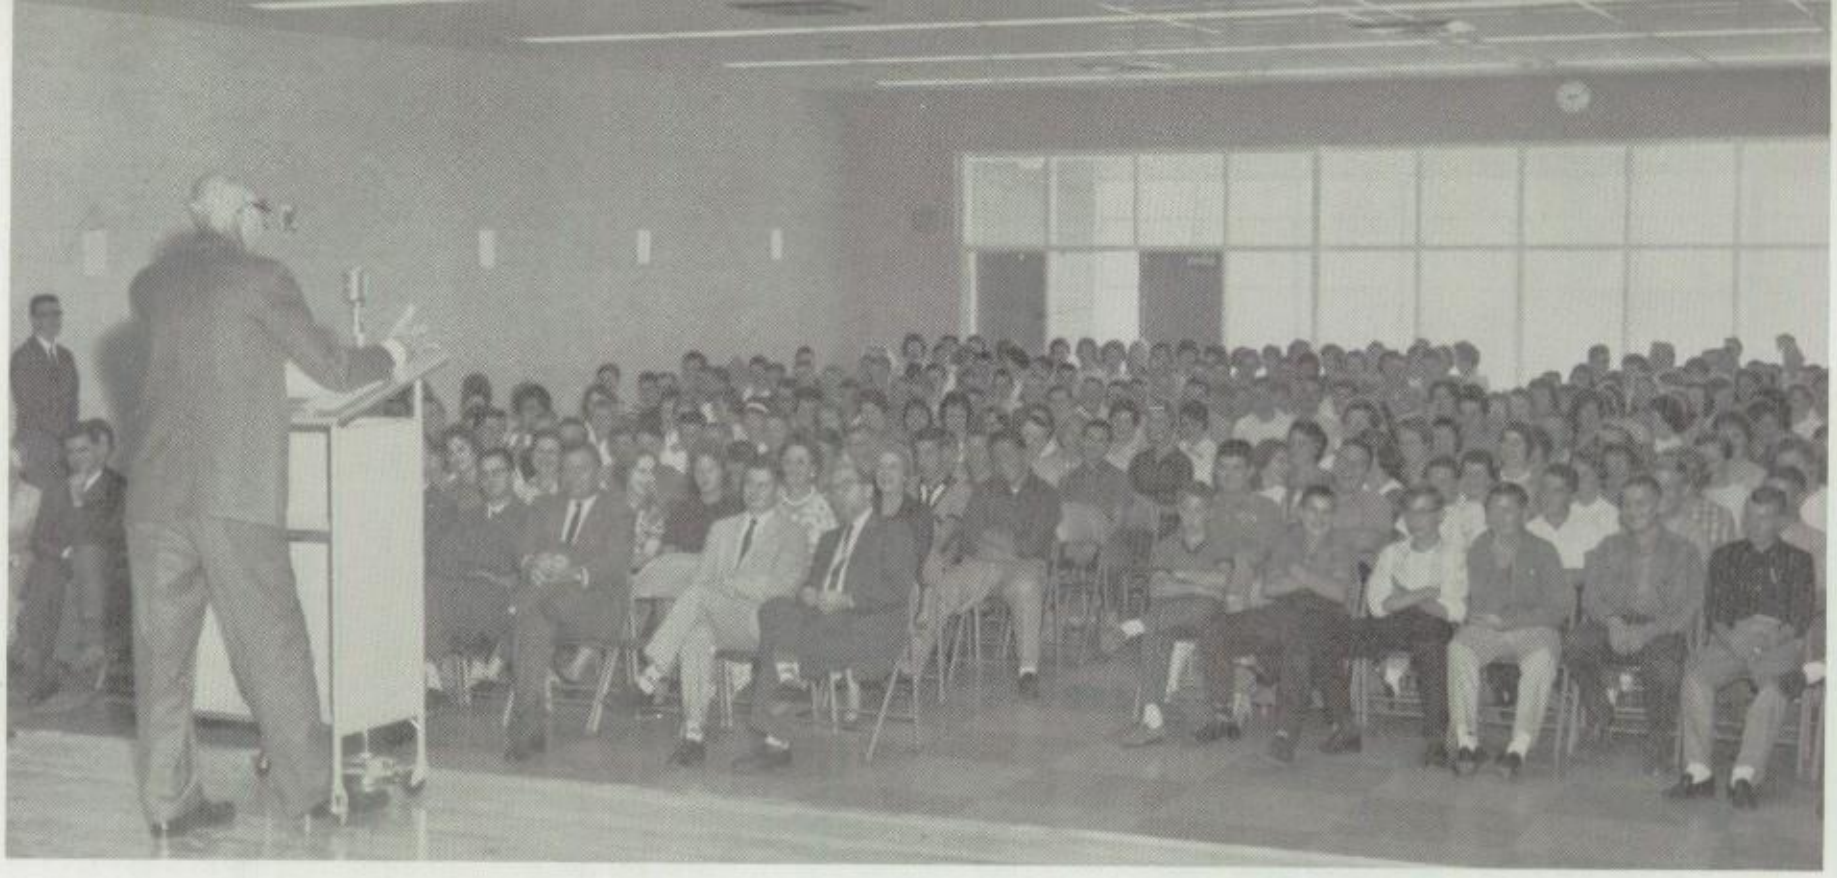
Activities



Above is Superintendent Bockstahler as he addressed the school at the traditional opening day assembly.

Assemblies Offer Variety

Mr. B. Clark from the Detroit Edison Company provided one of our most interesting assemblies when he spoke on "The Wonderful World of Energy."

Pep bands like this added vigor and spirit to the bi-weekly Pep assemblies.

Charles S. Strong spoke to us on the topic of his many books, "Hunting Around the World."

Some of the more important assemblies other than the ones pictured here were a General Motors "Preview of Progress," the annual Talent Show, Honor Society Inductions and the Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter Assemblies. All assemblies were presented through the co-operation of the administration and the Student Council.

Seniors Sweep Homecoming

Candidates for King and Queen of Homecoming this year were: Freshmen, Connie Smith and Paul Mahaney; Sophomores, Susie Baughn and Dave Roether; Juniors, Livy Petrides and Dick Liverance; Seniors, Marjan Auping and Joe Shiffer. Last year's Homecoming King and Queen, Dick Dana and Pat Van Tassel, handed their titles down to Joe and Marjan during half time of the football game with Fowlerville. The King and Queen then reigned over the Homecoming dance which followed in the high school cafetorium.

This year at Homecoming, both Senior candidates were chosen royalty. The King was Joe Shiffer and the Queen was Marjan Auping, the foreign exchange student from Holland.

The Senior float won first prize which consisted of twenty-five dollars from the Chamber of Commerce, who sponsored the contest. On the float were Dawn McNeilly, Pam Beutler, and Nancy White as the Hornets and Tommy Mouser as the Gladiator being burned at the stake. The theme of the float was "The Gladiators are smoking more now but enjoying it less."

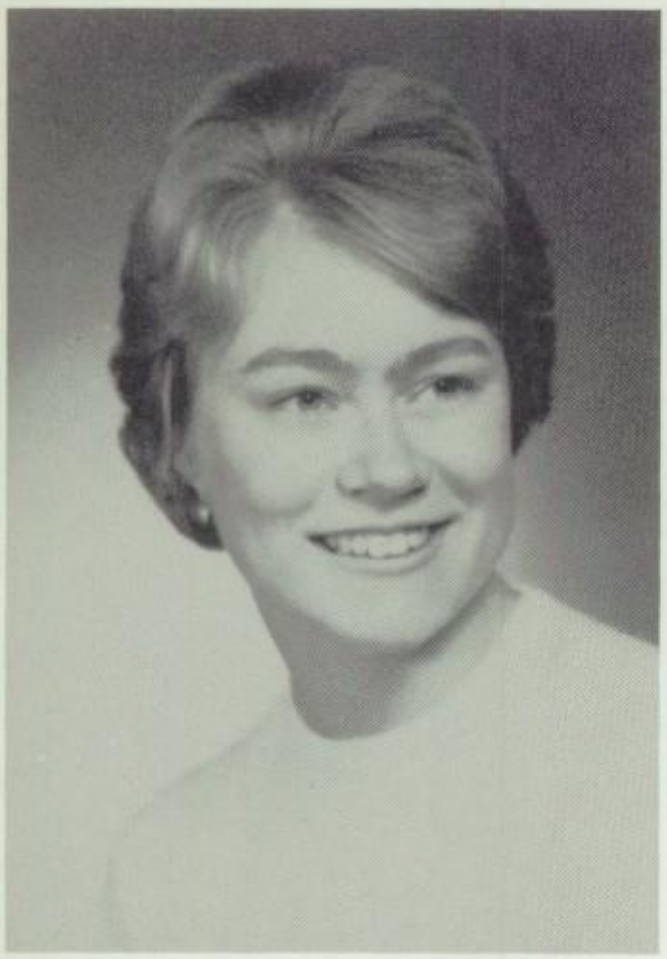
F.H.A.-F.F.A. Hosts Harvest Ball

The Harvest Ball, an annual event put on through the co-operation of the F.H.A. and F.F.A., was held on November 10, 1961, in the High School Cafetorium. Bev Lott and Gary Benjamin were co-chairmen in charge of decorations which carried out the harvest theme. A large shock of corn, pumpkins, squash and a split rail fence were combined in the center of the floor to carry out the theme.

1960 Harvest Queen, Kay Gallop, crowns 1961 Harvest King, Marvin Head. Queen, Marcia McNeilly, had already been crowned by 1960 King Norman Dunckel.

General chairmen - Arlin Head, Bonita Taylor, Joann Bloom, and Roger Baur - worked hard to make the Harvest Ball a success.

Members of the F.H.A. and F.F.A. enjoy an evening of dancing with their guests.



". . . this friendship will last forever."

This year in America, with all its wonderful people and long-to-be remembered experiences, will always be one of the most rewarding years in my life.

It has given me the best impressions of the American way of living, of family life and school life and I am very thankful that the American Field Service has made all this possible for me.

Especially school life was very exciting to me and I learned a lot of new and wonderful things like Homecoming, Sno-Ball, different sports and everything in connection with that.

It will be very hard for me this summer, to leave all the close friends and wonderful people behind, when I will return to Europe. I am sure though, that this friendship will last forever. Williamston will always mean something special to me.

On this occasion I want to thank the Williamston community very, very much for the marvelous year they have made possible for me, for the wonderful understanding and for having made me feel completely at home. This year will always be one of the highlights in my life!

Marjan Auping.

As the first foreign exchange student to come to Williamston, Marjan was extremely well accepted by the students and the community. She took an active part in school affairs, both academic and extra-curricular. As shown above, she sang next to her American sister, Ida Jo Dmochowski in the school chorus. She was also given the honor of being selected Homecoming Queen of 1961 and reigned with King Joe Shiffer over the Homecoming dance.

After experiencing Marjan's presence and active part in school life, the students of Williamston are sure to miss her.

"An Old Fashioned Christmas Is Theme of '61 Sno-Ball"

Above are Queen, Barb Allen and King, John Ellinger. They were chosen by popular vote of the students to reign over the 1961 Sno-Ball.

Mary Adams and Jeanne Lewis served punch from the refreshment table to Bev Lott and Dan Tibits.

This was a typical view of the dance floor.

The court consisted of Roger Whittemore, Jerry Stinnett, Gary Benjamin, Mike Dmochowski, Ron Horn, last year's king Terry Johnson, Queen Barb and King John, last year's queen Shelly Little, Bev Lott, Suzy Yake, Dee Montgomery, Lynne Jenkins, and Nancy White. Scott McCovie and Julie Baughn, in Pajamas, officiated over the coronation ceremony.

Students and their guests danced to the music of Don Jackson.

The Sno-Ball, held on December twenty-third, carried out its theme of "An Old Fashioned Christmas" with decorations, refreshments, and coronation. Decoration chairmen Suzy Yake and Lynne Jenkins transformed different parts of the cafetorium into a yard scene, an old kitchen, the sleigh scene, and an 1880 parlor, complete with fireplace and bear rug. Refreshments were home-made cookies and old fashioned fruit punch. Scott McCorvie and Julie Baughn opened presents on an old Christmas morning and found the court inside, again carrying out the theme.

Nina Adams and Tom Schoff were general chairmen of the student council sponsored dance.

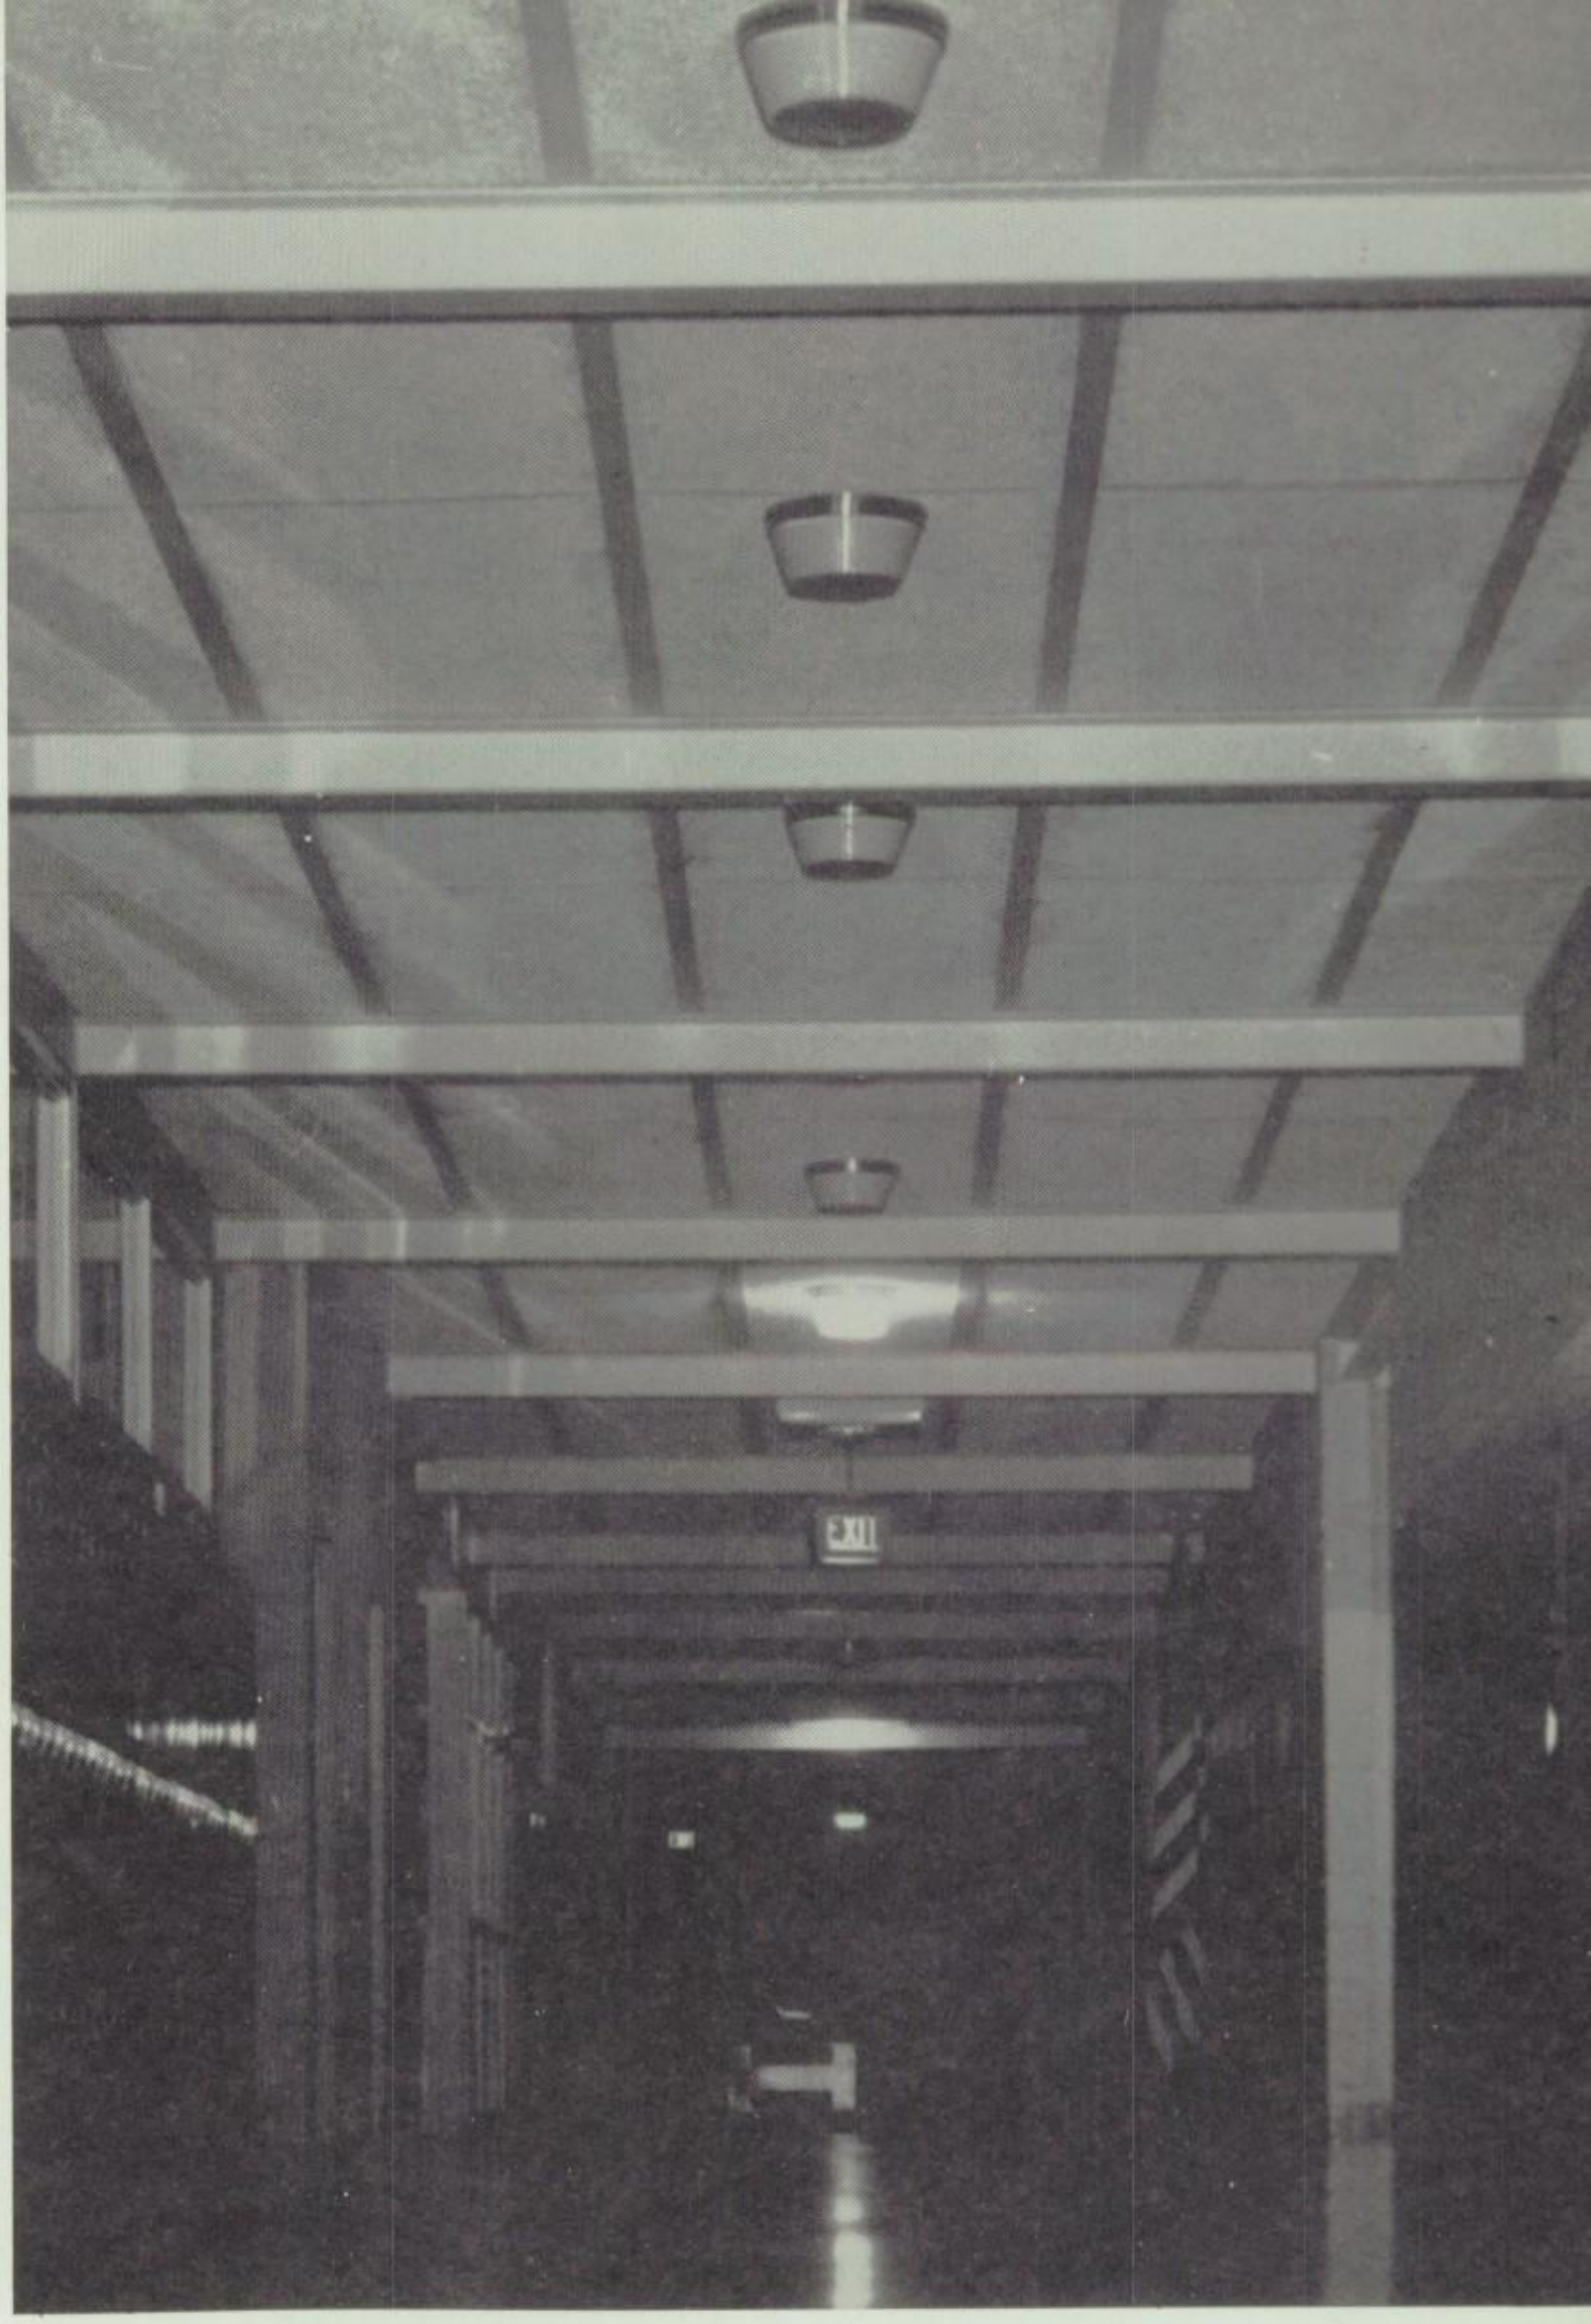
Mr. Alexander, director, and the stage crew, M. Kaiser, C. Hitchcock, S. Kester, M. Pedigo, E. Karn, B. Babka, B. Tetzloff, P. Zemke, S. Monroe, and W. Bartige, both helped to promote the success of the play. This was Mr. Alexander's first production since his graduation from college.

Junior Play Initiates New Stage

Dave Pfeifle as Frank Gilbreth, and Marcia McNeilly as his sister, Ernestine, recall the past years in the opening scene of "Cheaper by the Dozen."

Connie Powell as Mother, Vicki Lipps as Anne, and Tom Schoff as Father carefully help Miss Brill correct Anne's examination paper. The teacher, as played by Sharon Pierce, doubts, to Mr. Gilbreth's amazement, Anne's brilliance.

Members of the Gilbreth clan, as portrayed by these juniors, J. Klinger, V. Lipps, G. Fox, D. Liverance, R. Dietz, K. Shear, M. McNeilly, T. Schoff, D. Pfeifle, and C. Powell, held a family council meeting with Father as chairman. Other members of the cast who were not present were, T. Hollandsworth, P. Fisher, B. Granger, M. Christensen, and R. McGowan.



Most of the students that pass through these halls will return for one, two, or three years of classes, organizations, sports and activities. These are, of course, the . . .

In addition to being the first group which will complete four years in the new building, this year's freshman class is the largest in the high school with one hundred and fifteen members. Because of their size they are very active in many school activities such as, F.F.A., F.H.A., Band, Chorus, and the Student Council other than their own class affairs.

Claude Benjamin (shown at right) rises to make a motion while other Sophomore Class members look on and listen, showing an interest in class affairs. Among the Sophomore projects this year have been a prize winning float and a roller skating party. Of course one of the highlights of any Sophomore's year is the chance for him to "welcome" the Freshmen to high school. This year's Sophomores took full advantage of this opportunity, fully remembering the embarrassingly funny stunts that they were put through the previous year.

Juniors Pave Road to 1963

Serving as Junior Officers for the school year 1961-1962 were, Vice-President, Bob Grainger; Treasurer, Tom Hollandsworth; President, Dave Pfeifle; and Secretary, Ron Dietz.

Because of their added activities and responsibilities the Juniors more fully realized the meaning of being "upperclassmen." Throughout the year they were busy serving both their class and school.

Besides joining their class officers in the projects which confronted the class, the Juniors have also worked actively in school affairs through their eight-member representation in Student Council.

Working toward the goal of becoming a senior and graduating, the Juniors this past year have put out a sincere effort in both money-making and social activities.

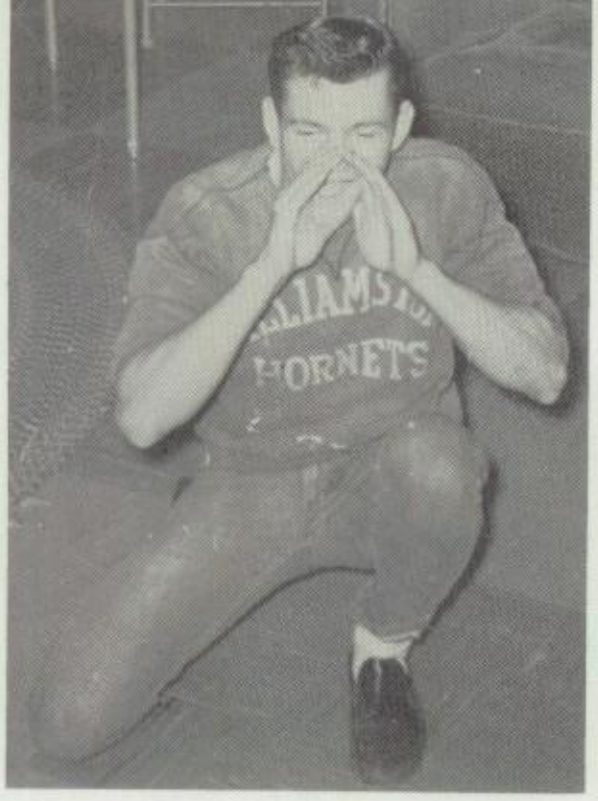
Selected as candidates for the Americans Abroad program next summer are Livy Petrides, Tom Schoff, Dave Pfiefle, and Sharon Pierce. It is possible that one of these four Juniors may spend seven weeks with a family in some foreign land.

Returning for another year as sponsor of the class of 1963 was Mrs. Daignault. Joining her in helping the students make their Junior days happy and successful was Mrs. Frost.



Tom Hollandsworth added his talent in the person of Joe Scales to the November production, "Cheaper by the Dozen." By means of varying talents and combined efforts, the Juniors successfully presented the first play on the new cafetorium stage.

With the smallest class in school the Juniors' class meetings were somewhat less formal, with a large quantity of participation from the whole group.

The seniors of sixty-two worked together to make their senior year a successful one. During the football season many class members devoted their time to operate the concessions stand. Consequently the class profited financially.

Due to the co-operation among the seniors, their float won first prize honors in the homecoming events.

Several money making projects, such as the selling of sweatshirts and bracelets, also added to the treasury.

As well as organizations . . .

Aside from the many class activities and scholastic duties the seniors of sixty-two found time to participate in many school organizations. Eighty percent of the class at one time or other belonged to some club; most joined two or more. Not only were the seniors members, but often the leading officers. The Future Farmers, Future Homemakers, G.A.A., Bible Club, Varsity Club, and Student Council all had senior presidents and usually other senior officers too.

With high qualifications in scholarship, character, leadership, and service John Ellinger, Rose Young, and Gary Benjamin were inducted into the National Honor Society in the spring of their junior year. In the fall of 1961 scholastic averages were again computed and the teachers voted to admit Suzy Yake, Arlin Head, and Bev Lott. At the Honors Assembly in March the spring inductees were: Nancy White, Pamela Beutler, Ann Faustman, Michael Dmochowski, seniors; David Pfeifle, Tom Schoff and Nina Adams, who are juniors.
